UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON

EDNA M. SONSTENG,

Case No. CV06 476 SU

Plaintiff,

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO DISMISS

-vs-

THE DOMINICAN SISTERS OF ONTARIO,
INC., an Oregon non-profit corporation,
dba, HOLY ROSARY MEDICAL CENTER;
JOSEPH J. BOYLE, M.D., and FRANK
J. SPOKAS, M.D.,

(By Defendant The
Dominican Sisters of Ontario, Inc. dba
Holy Rosary Medical Center)

Defendants.

1. The amended complaint does not state a claim for a survival action. The amended complaint alleges a claim for wrongful death, i.e., that the negligence of the defendants caused the death of the decedent.

The allegations against defendant Holy Rosary Medical Center (hereinafter HRMC) are identical to the allegations against defendant Boyle. There are no allegations against HRMC independent of physician conduct. The only conceivable theory alleged against defendant HRMC is one of vicarious liability for the conduct of its alleged employees and agents. (Amended Complaint, para. 5). Accordingly, defendant HRMC relies upon and incorporates by reference the memorandum in support of defendant Boyle's Motions to Dismiss Plaintiff's amended complaint.

2. If the amended complaint alleges a survival action, as described in the caption, the survival action should be dismissed.

Defendant HRMC relies upon and incorporates by reference the memorandum in support of defendant Boyle's Motions to Dismiss Plaintiff's amended complaint.

In addition to the memorandum in support of defendant Boyle's Motions to Dismiss, defendant HRMC makes the following additional points and authorities in support of dismissing plaintiff's survival claim.

In 1995, the survival action statute, ORS 30.075, was amended to make clear that it applies only to cases where a person suffered injuries allegedly caused by a defendant and then died of unrelated causes. ORS 30.075 reads:

"Causes of action arising out of injuries to a person, caused by the wrongful act or omission of another, shall abate upon the death of the injured person, and the personal representatives of the decedent may maintain an action against the wrongdoer, if the decedent might have maintained an action, had the decedent lived against the wrongdoer for an injury done by the same act or omission.

(3) Subsection (2) of this section does not apply to an action for damages arising out of the injuries that result in death. If an action for wrongful death under ORS 30.020 is brought, recovery of damages for disability, pain, suffering and loss of income during the period between injury to the decedent and the resulting death of the decedent may only be recovered in the wrongful death action, and the provisions of subsection (2) of this section are not applicable to recovery." (emphasis added).

The purpose of the amendment to ORS 30.075 was to "make clear that the subsection does not apply to an action for damages arising out of injuries that result in death. . . This was to resolve the problem that existed where actions under the survival statute were being brought in conjunction with wrongful death claims as a means of recovering attorney fees. The language . . . here resolves that problem." (Tape recording, comments of Committee Council, Max Williams, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Civil Process, tape 44, side A, 238-264, April 24, 1995).

The wrongful death statute was also amended in 1995. The legislature deleted the language "The court shall reduce recovery under this section by the amount of recovery, if any, by the decedent or the decedent's personal representative under ORS 30.075 because of the act or omission which caused the decedent's death".

(Tape Recording, comments of Committee Counsel Max Williams, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Civil Process, Tape 44, Side A, 264-274, April 24, 1995). This language was deleted in order to coordinate the wrongful death statute with the above amendments to the survival statute.

Taken together, the plain language of these statutes make clear that plaintiff has not alleged a survival action against defendant HRMC. Plaintiff's claim is for wrongful death. As such, his survival action should be dismissed as plaintiff has failed to state a claim for recovery.

3. The first count of the amended complaint fails to allege a misrepresentation sufficient to toll the limitation statutes as to defendant HRMC.

Plaintiff has alleged the same misleading representation against all defendants in an attempt to toll the ultimate repose statute. (amended complaint para. 4). Accordingly, defendant HRMC relies upon and incorporates by reference the memorandum in support of defendant Boyle's Motions to Dismiss Plaintiff's amended complaint.

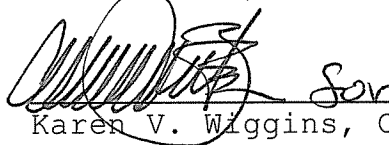

4. The second count, which alleges negligence two years after the date of treatment, fails to allege facts sufficient to toll the ultimate repose period, five years from the date of treatment, as to defendant HRMC.

Defendant HRMC relies upon and incorporates by reference the memorandum in support of defendant Boyle's Motions to Dismiss Plaintiff's amended complaint on file with the court. The second count, as with defendant Boyle, does not allege any misrepresentation as to defendant HRMC. Absent such, plaintiff cannot extend the five year ultimate repose period. The court made clear in the case of Urbick v Suburban Medical Clinic, Inc., 141 Or App 452, 457, 918 P2d 453 (1996) that in the absence of fraud, deceit or misleading representation, the five year period is absolute. Id at 456. Therefore, Court II of plaintiff's amended complaint should be dismissed for failure to state a claim.
